

NATIONAL CADET CORPS,
COY No. 4/(ARMY),
9(K) Bn NCC, Kottarakkara
SREE NARAYANA COLLEGE,
PUNALUR-691 305

The youth of the country is a national asset and its development is a task of great significance and importance. The NCC has got expertise and built-in-infrastructure to fulfill this goal on behalf of the Nation. Over the years NCC has contributed towards the goal in an effective and meaningful manner. Also, the NCC is the largest youth org in the world with an approximate strength of 15 lacs cadets.

The Aim of NCC is:-

- To develop qualities of character, courage, comradeship, discipline, leadership, secular outlook, spirit of Adventure, sportsmanship and the ideals of selfless service among the youth of the country.
- To create a human resource of organized, trained and motivated youth. To provide leadership in all walks of life including the Armed Forces and be always available for the service to the nation.
- To provide a suitable environment to motivate the youth to take up a career in the Armed Forces.

National Cadet Corps is a national Organization, engaged in grooming the youth – ‘The Leaders of Tomorrow’ – into disciplined and patriotic citizens.

The NCC Army Sub Unit of Sree Narayana College comes under the jurisdiction of 9(k) Bn NCC, Kottarakkara with a strength of 160 cadets. Current enrolled strength is 108. The SD and SW wings function as one unit under the leadership of Associate NCC Officer (ANO) Capt. Dr. Arun. V, HOD, P.G. Dept. of Chemistry. Cadets enrolled were given institutional training and can participate in adventure activities, community development programmes, various national level and annual training camps; youth exchange programmes, sports and cultural activities etc. Training is usually imparted on Saturdays. Cadets who have the required attendance to their credit and have shown sufficient progress can appear for B and C certificate examination conducted by Ministry of Defense, Government of India at the end of the first and third year of training respectively. Those who pass these examinations will be given preference for joining the armed forces. N.C.C. training will be treated as additional qualification while making recruitments to public service. Grace Marks are awarded as per University Rules to outstanding cadets.

Activities and Highlights

- Every year a few students attain the opportunity to attend Republic Day and Independence Day parades in New Delhi.
- Cadets were actively participated in various National integration campus conducted in various parts of India.
- All the cadets attended ATC camps.
- Blood donation is regularly taken up by the NCC and many patients benefit from the practice.
- Anti Alcoholic campaign are done on a sustained basis.
- Cadets of this unit were actively participated in various Trekking, Mountaineering, Army attachment and RCTC camps.

Various types of Social Service/ Community Development organized by NCC

The term social service is used to denote help given by a volunteer to an individual or a group at the time of need. Social service does not attempt at the study of needs and resources. It is the service rendered by any person on the basis of the desire to serve which is inspired by the feeling of helping. The followings are some of the important types of social services:-

- Child Welfare
- Youth Welfare
- Woman Welfare
- Welfare of Handicapped
- Service and care of aged

- Community welfare projects like adult education, eradication of illiteracy, anti dowry drive, blood donation, tree plantation etc.

Various types of Camps organized by NCC

The aim of various training Camps is to carry out collective training of cadets once in a year, mostly during the end of academic year. Special emphasis' is laid on development of team spirit and leadership qualities and comprehensive training in drill, WT, hygiene and sanitation, social service etc. It is imperative that all camps be planned in consultation with the Director of Public Instruction / Education well before the commencement of the academic year and all concerned be intimated of date and location well in advance. As far NCC is concerned a camp is a place where the cadets are taken and housed in tents or temporary quarters and where collective outdoor training is imparted.

Types of Camps

Two categories of camps are run in NCC. One category is being run by NCC Directorate and the other centrally.

(a) Camps Run By Directorates:

- (i) Annual Training Camp (ATC)
- (ii) Social Service Camp (SSC)

Annual Training Camps:

The aim of annual training camp is to impart collective training to cadets with special emphasis on the development of qualities of leadership. Stress should be laid on cooperative living, discipline and character building. These camps are generally planned during X-mas /

Dussehara Holiday. Camp site is decided by group commander. Duration of camp is SD 14 days, JD 10 days and for SW 12 days and 10 days. The aim is to inculcate following qualities in the cadets.

- (a) Leadership Qualities - The quality of leadership such as bearing and appearance , sense of team spirit , initiative , tactfulness , endurance , mental and physical alertness , discipline etc are to be inculcated in the cadets who are participating in the ATC,
- (b) Cooperative Living - In such Camps the cadets are taught to live , dine , carry out day to day routine activities , play etc together with a sense of pride and uprightness.
- (c) Character Building - During the trg and routine period in the camps , the cadets are made to go through various activities which directly and indirectly helps in character building .

Social Service Camps

These camps aim at developing team spirit, a sense of corporate living , self confidence amongst cadets and training them for social service with particular emphasis on dignity of labour , the work undertaken during such camps should have testing effect on the society and should be beneficial to them , it should be undertaken to consultation with block development authorities or the state Government. Maximum number of these camps should be held during summer holiday.

- (a) Team Spirit - During such camps the aspect of team spirit is required to be exhibited since all the projects which come in purview of social service are generally carried out on a group basis . In the group unless the team spirit exists, the aim cannot be achieved.
- (b) Social Service - Such camps are basically designed to carry out projects like blood donation , tree plantation, aids campaign, etc which assists the society for the betterment of tomorrow.
- (c) Dignity of Labour - While carrying out such task, the dignity of labour has to be kept in mind.

Pre Republic Day Camps -

These camps aim at selecting and training the RDC contingents to be sent by NCC Directorates for participating in RD Camp at Delhi. Contingent should be selected in such manner that the character of diversity is projected and not dominated by few cadets only. The main aim of such camp is not only to select cadets who are good in every field of competition but the talent of each one is to be seen individually and move no of participation to be taken care of.

(a) Character in Diversity - The main aim of such camp is not only to select cadets who are good in every field of competition but talent of each one is to be seen individually and more no participation to be taken care off

Basic Leadership Camp

These camps are basically ATC but they also aim to bring together the cadets from all parts of the country to enable them to live and train together with special emphasis on leadership qualities. The training programmes are the same as in the case of the ATC and are to be held along with the ATC.

(a) In such camps the cadets who are drawn for the training must be selected /drawn from various parts of the country so that competition is generated and higher standard in all the fields can be achieved.

(b) Basically the training programme is similar to the ATC but the std required to be achieved is kept higher than ATC.

Advanced Leadership Camp

These camps are held at selected places throughout the country with a view to impart advanced leadership training. A part of the time is allotted for training on military subjects. Later part of the camp is designed to develop a spirit of adventure , mental alertness and to develop initiative in cadets to take up various assignments by taking them on long treks and patrols for two to three days at a stretch are generally held during summer holidays.

(a) Trg Mil Subjects - During this the stress is laid on the mil aspects of recruits trg and the under which the recruits are made to pass through.

(b) Spirit of Adventure- Along with mil knowledge the adventure activities are planned and conducted.

Republic Day Camp

Each year NCC boys and girls contingents participated in Republic Day Camp for 09 to 29 Jan at Delhi. The participants are drawn from various directorates. Cadets participate in Republic Day Parade, Prime Minister Rally and in addition competition in inter directorate trg competition. The best contingent is adjudged and awarded the RD Banner. Various other prizes are also awarded to the winners. RDC is intended to project all that is good in NCC Trg and Adm.

(a) Competition - Various competitions are held during various activities that are conducted.

(b) The camp culminates with PM's Rally.

(c) RD Banner is presented to the best contingent.

Army Attachment Camp

As part of the “Swachh Bharat-Swasth Bharat” NCC cadets of 9(K) Bn NCC unit, S. N. College, Punalur conducted cleanliness rally and cleanliness drive awareness programme. Hon’ble Prime Minister of India has given a clarion call to the Nation for Swachh Bharat (Clean India) mission. He has officially launched the mission at New Delhi in commemoration of Birth day of Mahathma Gandhi on 2nd October 2014.

NCC cadets of 9(K) Bn NCC unit, S. N. College, Punalur in collaboration with Punalur Municipality participated in cleanliness drive awareness programme on 2nd October 2017. In this regard, a rally was organised to make students aware of cleanliness which was flagged off by Lt. Dr. Arun. V, Principal in Charge of the College. The cadets along with the ANO, Lt. Dr. Arun. V took pledge to keep the compound of the college and surroundings of locality clean. The rally started from the College at 9.00 am with placards showing the importance of cleanliness, raising slogans and displaying of anti littering notices. The rally passed through municipal bus stand, Punalur to Government School, Kuthirachira, Punalur. Meanwhile the NCC cadets removed the objectionable & eyesores such as dry wood, plastic material including polythene, cut grass, debris etc throughout the rally.

After the rally, NCC cadets assembled at Government School, Kuthirachira, Punalur, where the Municipal Chairman Sri. M. A. Rajagopal addressed the cleanliness drive awareness programme. All the Municipal councilors, Asha workers, Kudumbasree members, members from health departments were assembled there. All NCC Cadets along with ANO went 750 houses of two municipality wards of Punalur and were participated in the cleanliness drive awareness programme. In this regard, out of the 101 NCC cadets presented were divided into ten teams, which constitute NCC Cadets, ANO, ward councilors, Asha workers and Kudumbasree members. We have started the Programme at 9.30 am and ended at 1.30 pm. Hand bills were distributed in all the houses to educate the occupants the importance of cleanliness. Cadets participated in the cleanliness drive by distributing pamphlets on cleanliness to the houses and interacted with members.

Thus, the above two activities conducted by the NCC cadets of 9(K) Bn NCC unit, S. N. College, Punalur in collaboration with Punalur Municipality, enabled to create an awareness on the mission of cleanliness under “Swachh Bharat-Swasth Bharat” to the community.

Cadet Strength during this academic year

108 Cadets

The youth of the country is a national asset and its development is a task of great significance and importance. The NCC has got expertise and built-in-infrastructure to fulfill this goal on behalf of the Nation. Over the years NCC has contributed towards the goal in an effective and meaningful manner. Also, the NCC is the largest youth org in the world with an approximate strength of 15 lacs cadets.

The Aim of NCC is:-

- To develop qualities of character, courage, comradeship, discipline, leadership, secular outlook, spirit of Adventure, sportsmanship and the ideals of selfless service among the youth of the country.
- To create a human resource of organized, trained and motivated youth. To provide leadership in all walks of life including the Armed Forces and be always available for the service to the nation.
- To provide a suitable environment to motivate the youth to take up a career in the Armed Forces.

By focusing the above aims, various types of Social Service/ Community Development and training camps were organized by the NCC. The NCC unit in SN College is under 9(K) Bn NCC, Kottarakkra. The institutional parade training time was from 8.30 am to 1.00 pm on every Saturdays and now the NCC training is extended to three years. A summarized data of the NCC activities and other achievement of the NCC UNIT of SN College, Punalur during the 2019-2020 academic year are given in the Table: 1.

The youth of the country is a national asset and its development is a task of great significance and importance. The NCC has got expertise and built-in-infrastructure to fulfill this goal on behalf of the Nation. Over the years NCC has contributed towards the goal in an effective and meaningful manner. Also, the NCC is the largest youth org in the world with an approximate strength of 15 lacs cadets.

The Aim of NCC is:-

- To develop qualities of character, courage, comradeship, discipline, leadership, secular outlook, spirit of Adventure, sportsmanship and the ideals of selfless service among the youth of the country.
- To create a human resource of organized, trained and motivated youth. To provide leadership in all walks of life including the Armed Forces and be always available for the service to the nation.
- To provide a suitable environment to motivate the youth to take up a career in the Armed Forces.

In this academic year there was no regular institutional parades and camp training because of the COVID restrictions. However the NCC Unit and the Battalion conducted the classes through online mode.
