8. Fertilizers.
Fertilisers are the substance added to the soil to make more fertile. Fertilizers are most commonly used in agricultural purposes.
9. Trophic level is the step in the food chain which is called trophic levels.
3. Over nutrition means intake of too calories in available food.
5. In-situ Conservation is the conservation of internal or natural or renewable resources and Ex-situ conservation means the conservation of non renewable resources.

Food chain

It is the ^{energy} ^{passes through} of Producers to Consumers to decomposers in a flow of energy is known as a chain is known as food chain.

eg: Grass → Grass hopper → frog → Snake → Yaok → Decomposers.

Grass → Deer → Lion → Decomposers.

13. Salinity

b) Stratosphere

3 Stratosphere extends up to an average altitude of 50 km above the Troposphere. In Stratosphere take place deterioration of meteorites and disintegration of the ultra violet radiations from the ozone earth to protect ozone.
